

APPLICATION FOR LETTER OF RELEASE

This form only applies to international students holding a current student visa and who are applying to study at another registered education provider in Australia within the first six (6) months of the principal course at Crown College International.

NOTE: A release letter is not required for students who have studied more than six (6) calendar months of their principal course at Crown College International.

A Letter of Release - Supporting Documents List

An application for a Letter of Release will only be considered if you have completed this Application Form, been determined as eligible under the Transfer of Provider Policy and attached the following supporting documents:

- A copy of the Letter of Offer from another registered education provider;
- An attached signed written statement providing your reasons for requesting a Letter of Release;
- Written consent that Crown College International may contact the new registered education provider to confirm the Letter of Offer.
- A copy of the identification page from your current passport (which must be valid);
- A copy of your Student Identification card.

Important note: an application for release is not automatically approved. International students who wish to change their education providers or change to a new course must show that they maintain enrolment in an eligible course (or package of courses). Failure to do so may result in a cancellation of your visa by the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP).

Processing timeframe: applications may take up to ten (10) business days to process. For the Letter of Release to be collected by a third party, you must provide written authorisation. Please retain a copy of the completed form for your own records.

Further Information:

Please refer to:

- Transfer of Provider Policy – International Students
- Refund Policy – International Students
- National Code 2007 – Part D, Standard 7 – Transfer between registered providers

A Letter of Release cannot be issued if:

- You have an outstanding debt to Crown College International (debts include all tuition fees and additional material fees);
- The new course of study is at a lower academic level than the original course or group of courses with Crown College International (e.g. from an Advanced Diploma to a Certificate level course);
- The gap between the last day of your current course and the commencement date of your new course is greater than eight (8) weeks. If the gap is greater than eight (8) weeks but you have decided to return to your home country before commencing your new course, your Letter of Release will be issued eight (8) weeks before your new commencement.
- Crown College International withdrew its offer of admission due to the submission of fraudulent, incomplete, or inconsistent documents in your Application for Enrolment;
- You did not meet the attendance requirements, obligations, or other key requirements for admission to Crown College International;
- You have not attached all necessary supporting documents;
- You have withdrawn or discontinued your studies to return to your home country.
