Organisation Definition:

Crown Melbourne Limited trades as Crown Melbourne Limited, Crown College and Crown College International. For the purpose of this policy, any reference to Crown College, or the “college” should be considered a reference to any of these respective trading names.

1. Policy

- 1.1 This policy sets out the expectations and requirements for Crown College International’s applicants English language proficiency in order to be admitted to particular courses of study at Crown College International.
- 1.2 All courses delivered by Crown College International are delivered in English and as such, it is fundamental that students (both domestic and international) have language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) skills and English language proficiency sufficient to successfully complete assessments at the Vocational Education and Training (VET) level as reflected in the Australian Qualifications Framework (AQF) and as detailed in the relevant Training Package.
- 1.4 The Crown College International community embraces many students and employees for whom English is not their first language, therefore it is necessary to determine that all students or prospective students and employees of Crown College International are able to meet the English language proficiency criteria deemed necessary for success.

2. Scope

- 2.1 This policy applies to all students or applicants undertaking or wishing to undertake courses at Crown College International.
- 2.2 This policy applies to all trainers, assessors and employees responsible for student’s admissions and administration of Crown College International courses.

3. Responsibility

3.1 The Group Manager Operations is responsible for the implementation of this policy including the collection of information from prospective students, analysis of the evidence of English language provided by students and approving or rejecting the International student application based on English language proficiency.

4. Procedures

4.1 English language entry standards

4.1.1 Crown College International students are required to exhibit the necessary knowledge and skills to successfully engage with their studies, participate in open and stimulating discussion and conversation amongst their peers and trainers and ultimately successfully participate in their professional work environment post-graduation.

4.1.2 The English level entry standards for all students at Crown College International are set at a level to ensure that all students are sufficiently proficient in the English language to be able to successfully undertake and complete the course of study for which they enrol and participate effectively in appropriate academic activities.
